

THIS YEAR, I HAVE SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED	ARE MY OUTSTANDING CREDITS COVERED BY EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES?	PROGRESSION OUTCOME
120 CREDITS	N/A	Progress to your next level of study.
100 CREDITS or 80 CREDITS	YES	Submit the outstanding reassessments as per your Exceptional Circumstances outcome email, while continuing to your next level of study.
	NO	Trail 20-40 credits of your current level alongside your next level of study. For example, trail 20-40 Level 4 credits alongside Level 5, or trail 20-40 Level 5 credits alongside Level 6. Trailing credits means retaking the credit with teaching. Please note – you will not be permitted to trail any Level 4 credits into Level 6. If you have outstanding Level 4 credits by the time that you are due to start Level 6, you will need to redeem the outstanding Level 4 credits prior to progressing to Level 6. If your Level 4 assessments are referred or deferred, you will take a Progression Break. If your Level 4 credits are failed, you will register for a part-time year. If the failed modules are compulsory for your course, you must retake these modules. If they were optional, you may request to choose alternative modules.
60 CREDITS	YES	You are not permitted to progress onto the next level of study. You will be enrolled on a Progression Break. You will be expected to submit outstanding assessments as per your Exceptional Circumstances outcome email. You will not be expected to attend teaching. If sufficient credit is successfully passed during your Progression Break Year, you will be permitted to continue to the next level study in the following academic year.
	NO	You are not permitted to progress onto the next level of study. You should enrol on a part-time basis to retake 60 credits with teaching. If the failed modules are compulsory for your course, you must retake these modules. If they

		were optional, you may request to choose alternative modules. If sufficient credit is successfully passed during the part-time year, you will be permitted to continue to your next level study (full-time) in the following academic year.
40 CREDITS or 20 CREDITS or 0 CREDITS	YES	You are not permitted to progress onto the next level of study. You will be enrolled on a Progression Break (you will not be expected to attend any teaching) and will be expected to submit outstanding assessments as per your Exceptional Circumstances outcome email. If sufficient credit is successfully passed during your Progression Break Year, you will be permitted to continue to the next level study in the following academic year.
	NO	You are not permitted to continue with your studies. Failure of 80 credits or more at any one level will automatically result in exclusion from your course. If applicable, you will receive an Exit Award for any credit you have completed.

If you have any queries about Exceptional Circumstances or the Progression Rules, please contact us via MyServices.

If you have any queries regarding impacts on your finance or funding, please visit <https://www.bathspa.ac.uk/students/student-finance/>

Student Wellbeing Services offer a wide range of support services, details of which are available via <https://www.bathspa.ac.uk/students/student-wellbeing-services/wellbeing/>